Dear JWV Members and Friends:

Join us as we head to beautiful Savannah this August for our 121st Annual National Convention! Our hotel is located in the heart of the downtown district, only a few blocks away from the waterfront and in the midst of numerous historic and cultural landmarks and museums.

Our Convention will bring together JWV members and supporters who gather once a year to conduct organizational business, discuss programs, and plan for the future. Our theme, Planning for the Future, will encourage members to think critically about ways we make a difference in both the Jewish and veteran communities while tirelessly advocating for all veterans' rights.

This packet is chockful of useful information, ranging from the Convention registration form to the requirements for submitting resolutions. Please look through this carefully, and be advised of the deadlines listed on the next page.

If you have any questions regarding registration, the Convention schedule, or general inquiries, please contact Jordana Green at jgreen@jwv.org.

For questions about sponsorships, the ad journal, Constitution and Bylaws, Resolutions, NEC agenda items, and committee report submissions please contact Christy Turner at cturner@jwv.org.

For information on good standing, voting strength, and membership, please contact Cindy Chambers at cchambers@jwv.org. Any of them can also be reached at 202-265-6280.

We hope to see you in Savannah!

Sincerely,
The Jewish War Veterans of the USA
